Catholic Research Resources Alliance Symposium and Annual Meeting
Bringing the Created Toward the Creator: Liturgical Art and Design After Vatican II

June 1–2, 2015

Catholic Theological Union
Academic and Conference Center
5416 South Cornell Avenue
Chicago, IL 60614

Catholic Theological Union is pleased to host this year's Catholic Research Resources Alliance (CRRA) Symposium and Annual Meeting. The symposium will explore post-Vatican II changes, current activities in preserving and providing access to the archives of liturgical designers and artists, and engaging with scholars and students who use these resources. Visit catholicresearch.net for more information about the organization.

Points of interest for participants:

- Explore the changes inspired by Vatican II on liturgical arts and design.
- Engage scholars and students on their discovery and use of such resources — what do researchers and practitioners want and use?
- Explore the preservation of and access to the archives of liturgical designers and artists.
- The symposium keynote speaker will be John Buscemi, a leading liturgical artist. Other featured speakers include scholars, educators, and curators of liturgical arts collections.

Please visit www.ctu.edu/CRRA to register
