CRRA Liaisons Council Bulletin   No.10   August 2016

This new CRRA Liaisons Council initiative will bring monthly news on members' professional development, achievements and conferences, as well as institutional projects and grant opportunities. This bulletin looks to help support and grow our community. Thanks for submitting your news and articles.

1. CRRA is pleased to announce that you can now limit your search to just full text content on the portal! Deep thanks to our Digital Access Committee and in particular Eric Morgan and Demian Katz for making this possible.

Here's how. Simply 1) enter your search terms (or leave the portal search box blank to Find all results) 2) when your results are retrieved, check the "Limit to full text" box on the right side bar under "Narrow your search." (Circled in yellow, below)

2. 2016 Conferences and Workshops

2a. Digital Directions: Fundamentals of Creating and Managing Digital Collections
Denver, CO, September 26 – September 29. Guided by a faculty of national experts, join colleagues from institutions large and small for 2 1/2 days of instruction on best practices and practical strategies for the creation, curation, and use of digital collections. Network with colleagues who have similar challenges, interact with faculty one-on-one, gain a comprehensive introduction to digitization, and visit the mile high city of Denver, CO. For Information and details go to https://www.nedcc.org/preservation-training/digital-directions/dd-2016

2b. Making of the Humanities Conference
The fifth conference on the history of the humanities, 'The Making of the Humanities V', will take place at Johns Hopkins University in Baltimore (USA), from 5 till 7 October 2016. The MoH conference is organized by the Society for the History of the Humanities and bring together scholars and historians interested in the history of a wide variety of disciplines, including archaeology, art history, historiography, linguistics, literary studies, musicology, philology, and media studies, tracing these fields from their earliest developments to the modern day. We are especially interested in work that transcends the history of specific humanities disciplines by comparing scholarly practices across disciplines and civilizations. Please note that the Making of the Humanities conferences are not concerned with the history of art, the history of music or the history of literature, etc., but instead with the history of art history, the history of musicology, the history of literary studies, etc. Check for details on registration and accommodation and Preliminary Conference program

2c. Islandora Camp
Kansas City, MO, October 12 – October 15, 2016
Islandora is an open-source software framework designed to help institutions and organizations, and their audiences, collaboratively manage and discover digital assets using a best-practices framework. Combining Fedora and Drupal, Islandora is implemented and contributed to by an ever-growing international community. Full details and registration on our camp website: http://islandora.ca/camps/mo2016

2d. Workshop on Visualization for the Digital Humanities, Baltimore, MD, October 24 - October 27, 2016. A workshop will take place as part of IEEE VIS 2016 in Baltimore, MD. The purpose of the workshop and forum is to propose new research directions in visualization for the digital humanities, to familiarize the visualization research community with the problems faced by digital humanities researchers, and to foster future collaboration between visualization and digital humanities research.
