

of Providence of Mother Joseph Province, with general administration in Montreal, Quebec, Canada, and the more than 120 active and inactive ministries comprising Providence Health & Services (Alaska, California, Idaho, Montana, Oregon, and Washington). The collections provide valuable resources for documenting the Sisters of Providence, sister personnel and province governance; development and administration of education, health care, and social services in the West from 1856 to the present; Pacific Northwest history; Catholic religious life; schools of nursing; women's studies; and genealogy. The Personal Papers of Mother Joseph of the Sacred Heart, SP (Esther Pariseau), 1823-1902, foundress of the Sisters of Providence in the west, and records relevant to the Mother Joseph Statue in Statuary Hall, Washington, D.C., are also preserved. The Archives newsletter, Past Forward, is published three times a year to share activities in the Archives and includes columns highlighting historical facts, photographs, and Sisters of Providence.
